Item 4. Description of Securities.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not Applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

CVB Financial Corp. is incorporated under the California General Corporation Law. Section 317 of the California General Corporation Law ("Section 317") provides a statutory framework covering indemnification of any officer or director who has been or is threatened to be made a party to any legal proceeding by reason of his or her service on behalf of the Company. Section 317 provides that indemnification against expenses actually and reasonably incurred shall be made to any officer or director who has been successful on the merits with respect to the defense of any proceeding but does not require indemnification in other circumstances.

Section 317 provides that a corporation may indemnify any agent of the Company including officers and directors against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amount actually and reasonably incurred in a third party proceedings against such person by reason of that person's service on behalf of the Company, provided the person acted in good faith and in a manner that the person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Company.

Section 317 further provides that the Company may indemnify any agent who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action by or in the right of the Company against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by the agent in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, provided that the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person believed to be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. However, in actions brought by or in the right of the Company, indemnification is not available without court approval for amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a pending action or expenses incurred in defending a pending action which is disposed of by settlement or otherwise. Further, with respect to matters for which the agent shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company, indemnification for expenses is permissible only to the extent the court shall determine that the agent is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification.

In addition, Section 317 provides that the indemnification provided by the statute is not exclusive of other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, to the extent additional rights are authorized in the Company's Articles of Incorporation. Section 317 permits the advancing of expenses incurred in defending any proceeding against an agent of the Company by reason of that person's service on behalf of the Company upon the giving of an undertaking, or promise, by the indemnified person to repay those sums in the event it is later determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified. Finally, Section 317 permits the Company to procure insurance on behalf of its directors, officers, and other corporate agents against liability asserted against or incurred by these individuals even if the Company would not otherwise have the power under applicable law to indemnify them for their expenses. The Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as amended respectively, authorize the Company to indemnify its agents to the fullest extent permitted under StateStateCalifornia law. The Company has also adopted indemnification agreements in order to implement the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Company also maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Item 9. Undertakings.

- (a) The Company hereby undertakes:
 - (1) To file, during any period in which offers are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no greater than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

- (2) That, for the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bonafide offering thereof; and
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (b) The Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to the directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by final adjudication of such issue.

This opinion is being furnished in accordance with the requirements of Item 8 of Form S-8 and Item 601(b)(5)(i) of Regulation S-K.

In rendering our opinion, we have examined and reviewed only such questions of law as we have deemed necessary or appropriate for the purpose of rendering the opinion set forth herein. For the purpose of rendering the opinion set forth herein, we have been furnished with and examined only the following documents:

1. The Articles of Incorporation of the Company, as amended.
2. The Bylaws of the Company, as amended.
3. The Registration Statement.
4. Records of proceedings of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of Directors of the Company pertaining to the Stock Agreement.

We also have obtained from the officers of the Company certificates as to such factual matters as we consider necessary for the purpose of this opinion, and insofar as this opinion is based on such matters of fact, we have relied on such certificates.

In rendering the within opinion we have assumed without further inquiry that (i) the Shares issued pursuant to the Stock Agreement, will be issued in accordance with the terms of the Stock Agreement, including the receipt by the Company of the consideration therefor and (ii) the grant of the shares will comply with the securities laws of each state or jurisdiction applicable thereto (including the Securities Act of 1933), upon which assumptions the opinions contained herein are expressly conditioned.

Based upon the foregoing and such further review of fact and law as we have deemed necessary or appropriate under the circumstances, we are of the opinion that if, as and when the Shares are issued pursuant to the terms of the Stock Agreement, the Shares will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

This opinion is issued to you solely for use in connection with the Registration Statement, is not to be quoted or otherwise referred to in any financial statements of the Company or any other document and is not to be filed with or furnished to any government agency or other person, without our prior written consent.
