PROXY STATEMENT

ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

MAY 18, 1995

INTRODUCTION

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of CVB Financial Corp. (the "Company") for use at its Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting") to be held at the Red Lion Inn, 222 North Vineyard, Ontario, California 91764 on Thursday, May 18, 1995, at 7:00 p.m., and at any and all adjournments thereof. It is expected that this Proxy Statement and enclosed form of proxy will be mailed to shareholders on or about April 12, 1995.

MATTERS TO BE CONSIDERED

The matters to be considered and voted upon at the Meeting will be:

1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS. Electing seven persons to the Board of Directors to serve until the 1996 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

2. RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS. Ratifying the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 1995.

3. OTHER BUSINESS. Transacting such other business as may properly come before the Meeting and at any and all adjournments thereof.

COSTS OF SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The Company will bear the costs of this solicitation, including the expense of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this Proxy Statement and the material used in this solicitation of proxies. It is contemplated that proxies will be solicited principally through the mails, but directors, officers and regular employees of the Company may solicit proxies personally or by telephone. Although there is no formal agreement to do so, the Company may reimburse banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expense in forwarding these proxy materials to their principals. In addition, the Company may pay for and utilize the services of individuals or companies not regularly employed by the Company in connection with the solicitation of proxies if the Board of Directors of the Company determines that this is advisable.

OUTSTANDING SECURITIES, VOTING RIGHTS AND REVOCABILITY OF PROXIES

There were issued and outstanding 8,066,915 shares of the Company's common stock, no par value per share ("Common Stock"), on March 31, 1995, which has been set as the record date (the "Record Date") with respect to this solicitation for the purpose of determining the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. The Company's Articles of Incorporation also authorize the issuance of up to 20,000,000 shares of Serial Preferred Stock of which no shares are presently issued and outstanding.

Each holder of Common Stock will be entitled to one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of Common Stock standing in his or her name on the books of the Company as of the record date for the Meeting on any matter submitted to the vote of the shareholders, except that in connection with the election of directors, the shares are entitled to be voted cumulatively if a shareholder present at the Meeting has given notice at the Meeting prior to the voting of his or her intention to vote his or her shares cumulatively. If any shareholder has given such notice, all shareholders may cumulate their votes for candidates in nomination. Cumulative voting entitles a shareholder to give one nominee as many votes as is equal to the number of directors to be elected, multiplied by the number of shares owned by such shareholder, or to distribute his or her votes on the same principle between two or more nominees as he or she sees fit.

In the election of directors, the seven candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected. Discretionary authority to cumulate votes is hereby solicited by the Board of Directors, and the return of an executed proxy shall grant such authority.

Ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent public accountants requires the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares of the Company's Common Stock present at the Meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote.

A proxy for use at the Meeting is enclosed. The proxy must be signed by you or your authorized agent. Any shareholder who executes and delivers such proxy has the right to revoke it at any time before it is exercised by filing with the Corporate Secretary of the Company an instrument revoking it or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. It may also be revoked by attendance at the Meeting and election to vote thereat. Subject to such revocation, all shares represented by a properly executed proxy received in time for the Meeting will be voted by the proxy holders in accordance with the instructions on the proxy. If no instruction is specified in respect to a matter to be acted upon, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted "FOR" the election of the nominees for directors set forth herein and "FOR" the ratification of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 1995. It is not anticipated that any matters will be presented at the Meeting other than as set forth in the accompanying Notice of the Meeting. If, however, any other matters properly are presented at the Meeting, the proxy will be voted in accordance with the best judgment and in the discretion of the proxy holders. Abstentions from voting on any matter other than in the election of directors will have the effect of a vote "AGAINST" the proposal.

If you hold your shares of Company Common Stock in "street name" and you fail to instruct your broker or nominee as to how to vote such shares of Common Stock, your broker or nominee may, in its discretion, vote your shares of Common Stock "FOR" the election of the nominees for director set forth herein and "FOR" ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche as the Company's independent public accountants for the year ending December 31, 1995.

Board of Directors' Report on Executive Compensation

With the exception of decisions related to stock options, decisions on the compensation of the Company's executives, including the Named Executives, during 1994 were approved by the entire Board of Directors. Decisions with respect to stock options are made by the Stock Option Committee which is comprised of all of the Company's non-employee directors. No stock options were granted to any of the Named Executives during 1994.

The Report of the Board of Directors shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except to the extent that the Company specifically incorporates the information contained in the report by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such acts.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Company has adopted a basic philosophy and practice of offering a compensation program designed to attract and retain highly qualified employees. It is intended to encourage and motivate these individuals to achieve superior performance. This underlying philosophy pertains specifically to executive compensation, as well as employee compensation at all other levels throughout the organization.

There are three principal components of the executive compensation program.(1) They include base salary compensation, bonus compensation (performance compensation) and long-term incentive compensation.

For 1994, the base salary compensation for each of the Company's executive officers, including the Named Executives other than Mr. Wiley, was determined by first establishing a range of base salary compensation for each executive. This salary range is predicated on the California Bankers Association salary survey and other salary information and considerations. The mid-point of the base salary range was placed at the higher end of the average base salary range of other California financial institutions of comparable size. This reflects the Company's willingness to pay a higher base salary than its competitors to attract and retain highly qualified executives and employees.

Each executive has a base salary which was established within this range. It is predicated on the executive's ability, experience and past and potential performance and contribution to the Company. Furthermore, each base salary was established in such a manner that the Company will have the ability to increase these base salaries within the salary ranges in future years based on the executive's performance. In the event an executive's base salary for the prior year was above the range, the base salary was held constant at the same level as the prior year. The full Board of Directors approved both the range and the actual base salary for each executive officer.

The range of each executive's base salary will be evaluated and adjusted, if appropriate, in subsequent years, based on future salary surveys, comparable salary information and other considerations. Base salary adjustments for each executive will be predicated primarily on performance and the executive's position in the base salary range. Performance evaluations are conducted at least annually, and they are based primarily on results achieved. These results are measured against specific performance standards established at the beginning or during the course of the year. For example, a branch manager would have performance objectives and standards based on, among other things, deposit growth, fee income, expense control and net earnings.

Bonus compensation is based on return on equity for the Bank and other specific performance criteria. The Bank must achieve a minimum return on equity for anyone to be eligible for a bonus. This criteria was a minimum return on average equity of 15% for 1994. The actual return on average equity for the Bank for the year was 17.77%. Assuming the minimum return on equity is achieved, for each individual, 50% of the bonus award is based on return on equity and 50% of the bonus award is based on individual performance as measured against specific performance objectives and standards established at the beginning of the year. The individual performance objectives and standards relate to specific results where the executive has substantial influence and accountability. All bonuses paid to executive officers, including the Named Executives, for service during 1994 were approved by the full Board of Directors.

The Company maintains two compensation plans that are intended to provide long-term incentives for its executive officers. They include a Stock Option Plan and a Profit Sharing Plan.

The Stock Option Plan is designed to align the interests of key employees, including the Named Executives, with those of shareholders. It is intended to provide these employees with an incentive to achieve superior performance by granting them long-term options to purchase Company Common Stock at a fixed exercise price that equals the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of the grant. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the Stock Option Committee, which is comprised of all the Company's non-employee directors. This committee has the authority to select the key employees to whom stock options are granted and the number of options granted to such persons. The members of the Stock Option Committee do not utilize any performance goals in determining the number of options to be granted, nor do they consider the number of options previously granted to an executive officer. Rather, the members base the award of stock options on their own analysis of that employee's contribution to the Company, including an assessment of the employee's responsibilities, as well as the employee's commitment to the Company's future.

The Profit Sharing Plan is designed primarily to provide retirement benefits to all eligible employees, including Named Executives. It also has death and disability features. Employees become eligible upon completing at least one year of service. Annual contributions are made solely by the Company. These contributions are entirely discretionary, and they are approved by the Board of Directors based on the earnings of the Company. For 1994, the Company contributed $771,013, or 8% of total employee base salary and bonus, to the Profit Sharing Plan. Contributions are allocated proportionately to the accounts of plan participants based on their base salaries and bonus. Plan participants become fully vested in these amounts upon reaching seven years of service.

Mr. Wiley, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, received compensation for his services during 1994 based primarily upon his rights under his employment agreement with the Company and the Bank that was entered into on August 8, 1991. The employment agreement provided that Mr. Wiley is eligible to receive a discretionary annual bonus. This bonus is based on specific performance achievements as outlined above for other executive officers. Mr. Wiley may receive a bonus of up to and including 83% of his base salary under this plan. He received an annual bonus of $227,825, or 70% of base salary, for his services in 1994. This bonus was predicated on return on average equity, deposit growth, noninterest expense control, loan delinquencies, net loan losses and staff turnover. In addition to the benefits provided for under this employment agreement, Mr. Wiley is an eligible participant in the Company's Profit Sharing Plan. He received an unvested allocation of $18,747 for 1994. This represents his proportionate share of the aggregate employer contribution authorized by the Board of Directors for 1994.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No person who served as a member of the Personnel Committee or the Stock Option Committee during the 1994 fiscal year has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, except Mr. Wiley. However, all decisions regarding compensation of executive officers during 1994 other than those related to stock options or the base salary of Mr. Wiley, were made by the entire Board of Directors. With the exception of Mr. Wiley, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, none of the persons who served as members of the Company's Board of Directors during the 1994 fiscal year has ever been an officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

The following graph compares, for the period from January 1, 1990 through December 31, 1994, the yearly percentage change in the Company's cumulative total shareholder return on Common Stock with (i) the cumulative total return of the American Stock Exchange market index and (ii) the cumulative total return of an index comprised of banks and bank holding companies headquartered in Southern California and selected by Montgomery Securities. The graph assumes an initial investment of $100 and reinvestment of dividends. The graph is not necessarily indicative of future price performance.

Director Compensation

In 1994, directors of the Company and the Bank received $2,783 per month for Board and Committee meetings, except for the Chairman of the Board and one of the two Vice Chairmen of the Board who received $7,949 and $5,300, respectively, per month for such meetings. Mr. Wiley, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and the Bank, received no fees for serving as a director of the Company or the Bank. The aggregate amount of directors' fees paid in 1994 was $292,548. Each of the Company's non-employee directors is also entitled to receive up to five annual fixed grants of options to purchase 5,000 shares per grant, subject to standard anti-dilution adjustments, of the Company's Common Stock under the Company's 1991 Stock Option Plan. During 1994, each non-employee director received a grant of nonqualified options to purchase 6,655 (as adjusted) shares of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $13.875 per share.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

Some of the directors and executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries and the companies with which they are associated were customers of, and had banking transactions with, the Bank in the ordinary course of its business during 1994, and the Bank expects to have such banking transactions in the future. All loans and commitments included in such transactions were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons of similar creditworthiness and, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, did not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(A) OF
THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of a requested class of the Company's equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and the American Stock Exchange. Executive officers, directors and greater than ten-percent shareholders are required by Securities and Exchange Commission regulation to furnish to the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

Based solely on review of the copies of such forms furnished to the Company, or written representation that no Form 5 were required, the Company believes that during the fiscal year ended December 31, 1994 all executive officers, directors and greater than ten-percent beneficial owners complied with all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to them with the exception of one Form 4 which was filed late by Vincent Breitenberger.

All professional services rendered by Deloitte & Touche during 1994 were furnished at customary rates and terms.
